

ARTIST'S FILMS

A film of you and your work supplied on DVD

As an example:

One day filming and still photography then editing footage, audio and stills to make a 10/12 minute film. For example - the film can feature an artist at work, with voice over of an interview we can devise. Stills of previous work can blend in and out.

(Longer/shorter films can be accommodated, as necessary).

Cost for example above:

£450.00 plus travel expenses.

(A 2-3 minute film would cost around £270.00).

Details:

Initial discussion to agree requirements and running order.
Day of filming and photography.
Editing down to required length.
DVD supplied as end result.

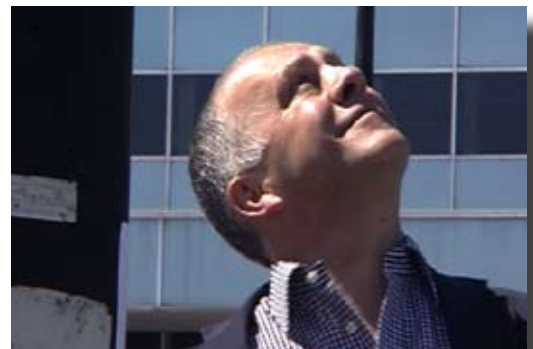

Experience:

I have extensive experience in creating and editing film. I am an intuitive and creative photographer and film maker, working with digital technology for over 20 years.

I also make promotional films for schools, individuals and organisations.

Case study 1- 2005

A commission by Milton Keynes gallery to film an interview with Langlands & Bell - Turner Prize nominees and BAFTA award winners. The interview was a discussion about their work - Domain. The film runs for 10 minutes is a mix of footage in interview and the work, with voiceover.

Case study 2- 2009

At present working with Rosie Sanders to produce a 12 minute film predominantly featuring the paintings of the 2nd Edition of her Apple Book. The dvd may be part of the book, as well as linked to Rosie's website, and used promotionally.
